

Our Services

Manual Therapy

Manual therapy may include tissue frictions, joint mobilization, soft tissue mobilization neural mobilization and deep tissue massage.

These techniques are all hands on treatments that are utilized to restore range of motion to joints and soft tissue. They also work to reduce or eliminate inflammation, reduce pain, improve tissue repair, facilitate movement and improve function.