

Our Services

Postural Assessment

A posture assessment allows our therapists to observe how your body is aligned when you stand and when you move. Postural deviations can result in excessive stresses being places on specific tissue, resulting in pain and dysfunction.

Information collected during a posture assessment will be utilized in creating a personalized treatment program.