

Our Services

Spinal Rehabilitation

During your first visit, your physiotherapist will complete your patient history and do a thorough examination. They will evaluate your posture, range of motion, nerve function, muscle lengths, core strength and spinal mobility.

This information will be used to create an individualized care plan for the specific condition and symptoms you are dealing with.